Call for Workshop Proposals

California Family Health Council is pleased to announce a call for workshop proposals for the 32nd annual Women's health Update on Wednesday, October 28th, 2015 at The California Endowment in Los Angeles.

CFHC's Women's Health Update is a leading conference for best practices in the provision of quality sexual and reproductive health care for all in diverse settings.

Health care professionals interested in submitting a proposal to present a 70 minute workshop at CFHC's Women's Health Update 2015 must complete and submit this online proposal form by 5:00 PM PT on March 23rd.

Workshop Focus Areas:

All workshop proposals must include innovations and best practices in one of the following focus areas:

1. QUALITY – Promote quality improvement of sexual and reproductive healthcare through innovations emphasizing value over volume, new guidelines, and lessons learned from the leaders in the field
2. ACCESS – Address and remove barriers to sexual health care, perhaps integrating new technology or addressing the needs of a specific patient population such as LGBT, adolescents, or male clients
3. RESEARCH – Introduce new sexual and reproductive health technologies, including those related to method efficacy, newly approved treatments, improved testing, and promising male methods
4. PATIENT-CENTERED EDUCATION/COUNSELING –Build staff skills to support patient learning and meaningful informed consent using shared decision making, newly released quality counseling guidelines, or tools for training staff

Selection Criteria:

Successful workshop proposals will:

- Share evidence-based or informed best practices, current trends and “cutting edge” information
- Provide practical skill building and tools
- Include opportunities for interactive discussion and involve multiple learning styles

Selection Process + Timeline:

- After uploading your proposal information, you will receive a confirmation email
- Selection committee will review all proposals
- Individuals selected to present will be notified no later than April 15th, 2015
- Accepted presenters will receive complementary registration for the pre-conference and conference.

Submit Your Proposal by March 23!
